SENIORS

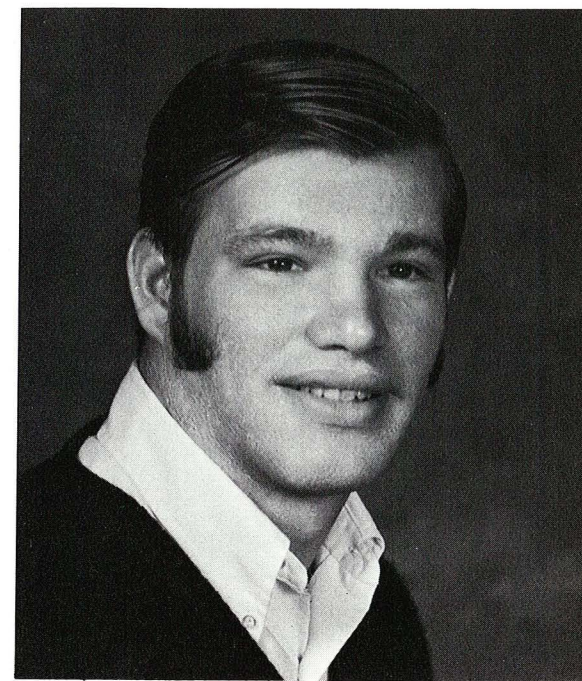

LESLIE A. BEATON

Look to this day! For yesterday is but a dream and tomorrow is only a vision.

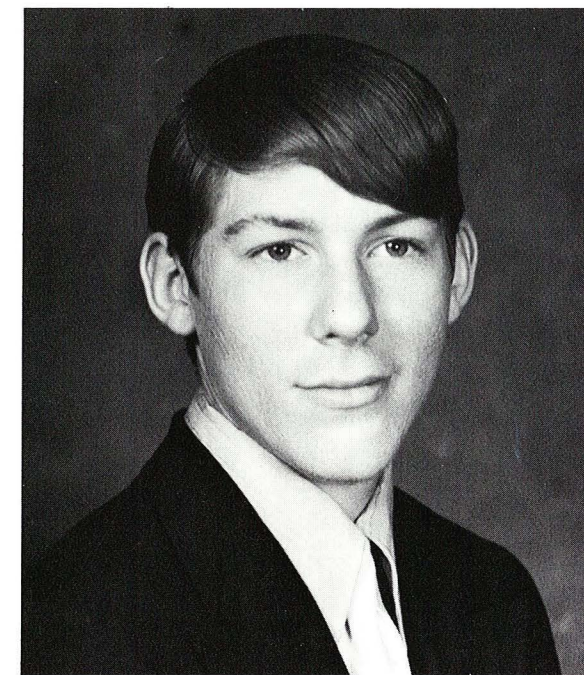

GLORIA J. BESWICK

Adventure is not in the guidebook and Beauty is not on the map. Seek and ye shall find.

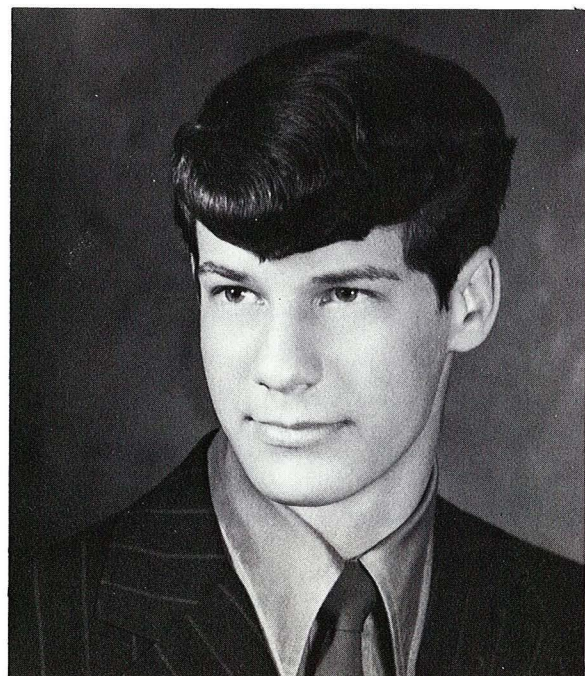

FREDRICK G. CLEAVLAND

There is no mistake so great as that of being always right.

JEFFREY A. CURREN

The brave can stand firm when danger threatens. The strong can endure the torment of pain. The Valiant can stand the darkness of fear, but none can combat the despair of loneliness.

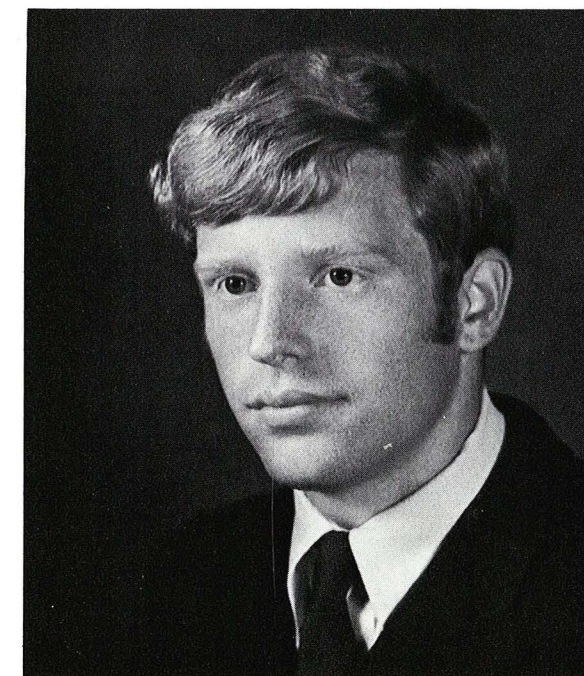

DAVID L. CAMPBELL

Peace can not be kept by force; it can only be achieved by understanding.

The Bowl of Time holds many things
But we can't have them all;
We dip our hands and pick and choose
Among the great and small.
If we take this, we can't have that;
It's one of nature's laws;
This goes with this, and that with that,
Despite the seeming flaws.
Great things are joined to lesser ones
And will not split asunder;
Their union often causes us
To stop and think and wonder.
The pattern always runs the same
In persons and in things,
We seize the one prize that we want
Then bear with what it brings.
There never was a perfect man
Since time of Galilee,
But that he had his special faults
The same as you and me.
Let's use our faults as seasoning
In all our thoughts of others,
That we may ever be more kind
And helpful to our brothers.
by Mr. John Randerson

If I knew you and you knew me -
if both of us could clearly see,
And with an inner sight divine the meaning of your heart and mine - I'm sure that we would differ less and clasp our hands in friendliness;
Our thoughts would pleasantly agree
If I knew you, and you knew me.

If I knew you and you knew me,
as each one knows his ownself,
We could look each other in the face and see therein a truer grace
life has so many hidden wows, (so many thorns for every rose;)
"The why" of things are hearts would see, If I knew you and you knew me.

DARRYL D. FRAZIER

High above land are many bright lights.
Much too high for mans reach, yet if he would only look they're too low at his feet.

JAMES L. FRENCH

When a man does not keep pace with his companions, Perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

KILBURN B. FRENCH

Two things are bad for the heart:
running up stairs and running down people.

It's only for a little while
These things that we possess;
It's only for a little while
Our strivings for success.

Then after we have gathered in
The trinkets that could not wait,
We are apt to find, we've left behind
Things that could make life great.

For in our journey every day
We're given the right to choose
The things that added up in us
Can make us win or lose-

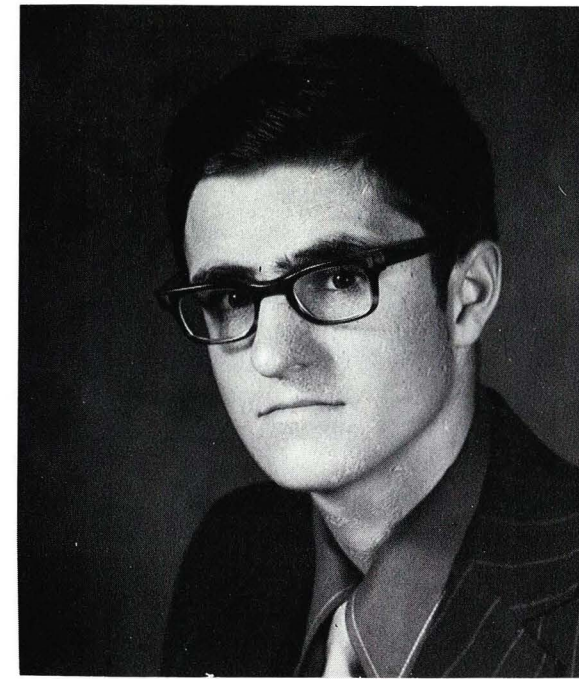

For in our journey every day
We're given the right to choose
The things that added up in us
Can make us win or lose-

The love, respect of everyone;
These boons that are the best
That life affords to you and me,
Short time we are its quest.
by Mr. John Randerson

JEANINE M. GATES

Have you earned one more tomorrow from the love you gave today?

ROY E. HARDING

Das Leben ist Kurz. . .
Merely a speck in the millenniums of history.

Let others cheer the winning man,
Theres one I hold worth while;
Tis he who does the best he can,
then loses with a smile.
Beaton he is, but not to stay down with the rank and file;
that man will win some other day, who loses with a smile.

If you have a friend worth loving,
love him.
Yes, and let him know that you love him, ere life's evening tinge his brow with sunset glow.
Why should good words ne'er be said
of a friend- till he is dead?

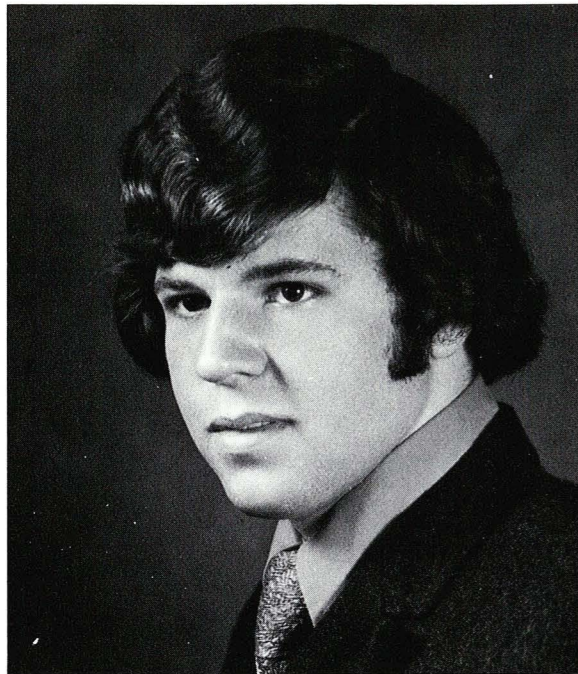

RICHARD J. LARKIN

Smile and the world smiles with you; be sad and you are sad alone.

BONITA L. MILLER

The best portion of a good life are the little nameless, un-remembered acts of kindness and love.

KENNETH A. PFAUS

Why do today what you can put off till tomorrow!

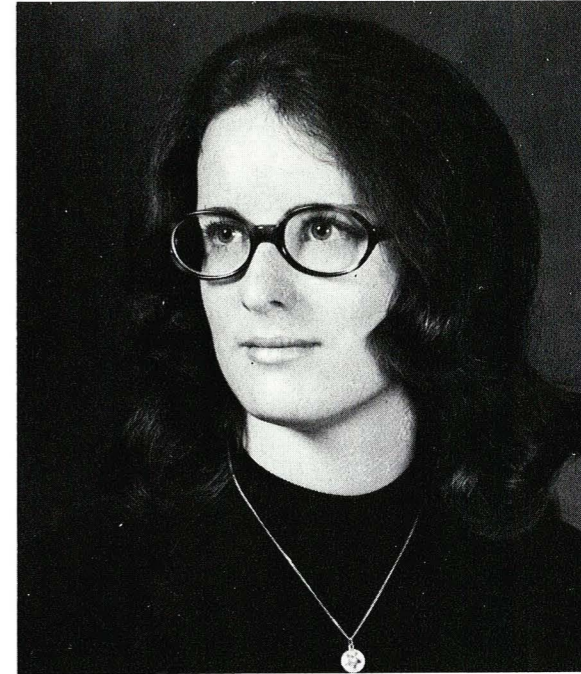

NANCY K. ROOT

Live for today, for tomorrow may and probably will be different.

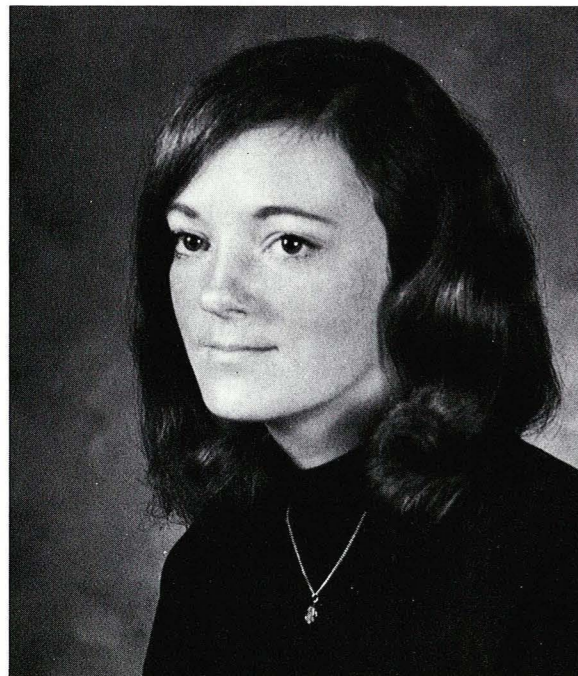

CAROLYN A. SIEBERT

The love in your heart wasn't put there to stay. Love isn't love till you give it away.

LORETTA M. STRIVE

I do my thing and you do your thing. I am not in this world to live up to your expectations and you are not in this world to live up to mine. You are you and I am I. And if by chance we find each other, its beautiful.

ELLEN G. RUSSELL

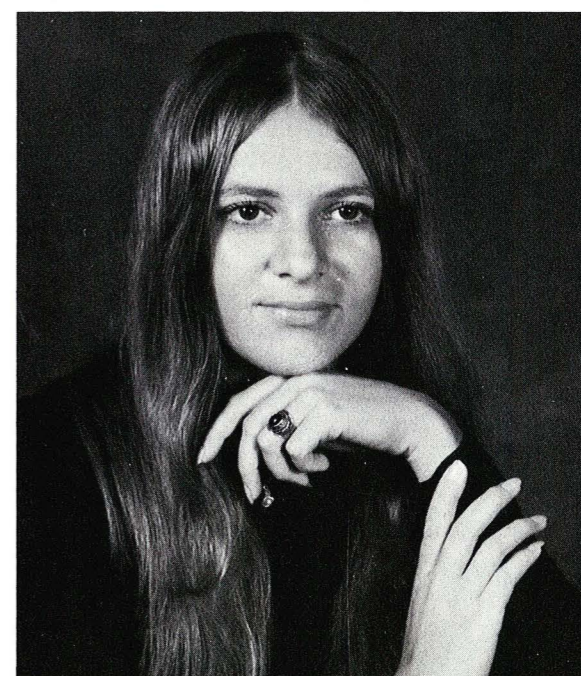

Take all your treasures down from the shelf, but the greatest treasure of all is the love you give when you give yourself!

Years are so long while we're learning,
Yet having passed are naught,
Except in happy memories Through friendships brought.

We turn from the past as finished,
We greet the future new,
Fresh-armed with are learning, ready
Our work to do.

Some will fill men's places outside
Some will go on in school,
Wherever we are we'll do honor
To our home, our town and school.
by Mr. John Randerson

Me they resemble not in slightest parts
Of things that well so rich from generous hearts;
With open hands they gave away their store
Of guns and things they prized so much before;
Then shoved from childhood's strand
their lightened barks, Ready for honors and gifts the world imparts
To those whose capacities match the greatness of their hearts.
by Mr. John Randerson

CYNTHIA M. TERRIO

Fear not that thy life shall come to an end but rather fear that it shall never have a beginning!

In Memory of Mrs. Francis

There is a Lady Sweet and Kind,
Was never face so pleased my mind;
I did but see her passing by,
And yet I love her till I die.

Her gesture, motion, and her smiles,
Her wit, her voice my heart beguiles,
Beguiles my heart, I know not why,
And yet I love her till I die.

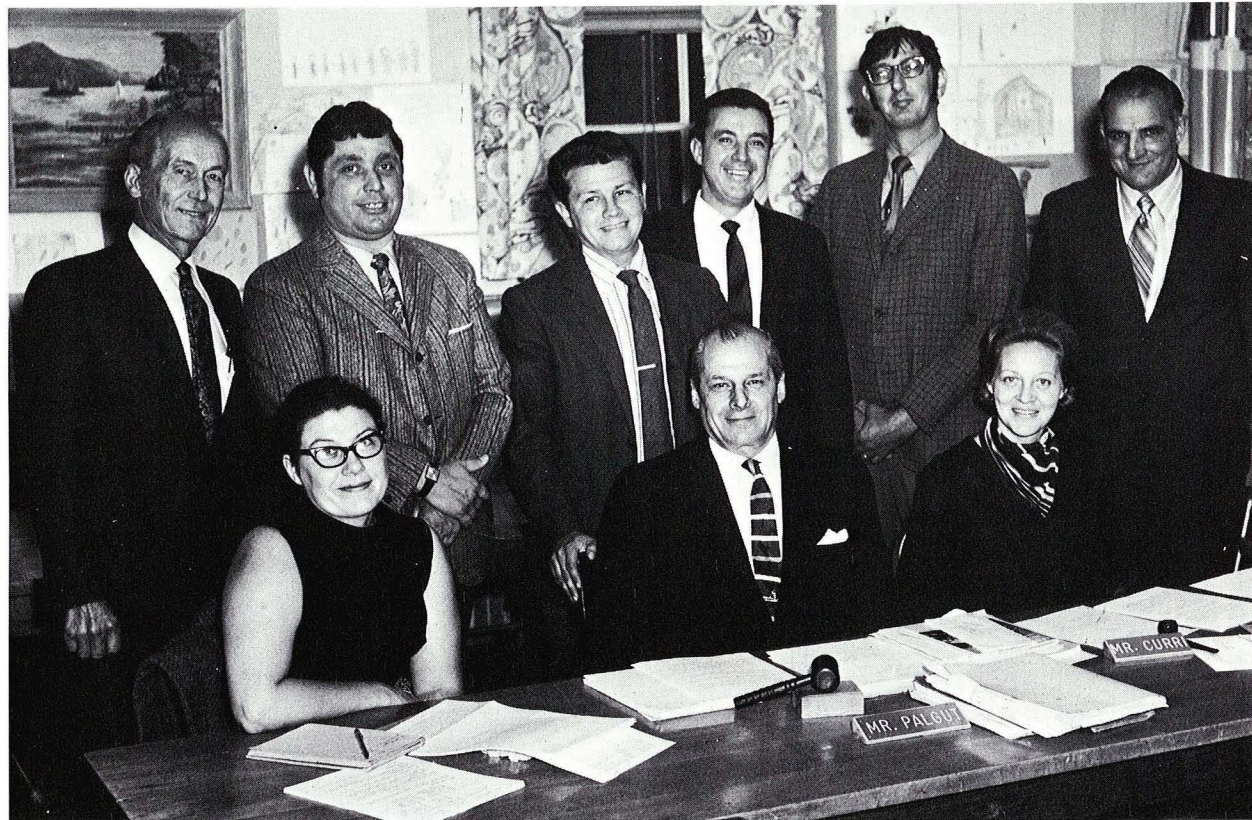

Cupid is winged and doth range,
Her country so my love doth change:
But change she earth, or change she sky,
Yet will I love her till I die.
