*In Memory Of Victoria
Lee
Dodge*

*When I must leave you for a little while-Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do
all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways,
Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never
be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.*

WE MISS YOU

Yes, we miss you
Yes, we've got to make it on our own
It can be done
So, when we say we miss you Don't sit back or look away
In disbelief
Life is too precious, too brief
For long debates
And lonely confusion
So, we'll say we miss you
And we'll cry when you cry
we'll miss one another
Just for one true moment
For today
... Until tomorrow

In Memory Of

Thomas Colgrove

Life's Tragedy
It may be misery not to sing at all
And to go silent through the brimming day.
It may be sorrow never to be loved,
But deeper griefs than these beset the way.

To have come near to sing the perfect song
And only by a half-tone lost the key,
There is the potent sorrow, there the grief,
The pale, sad staring of life's tragedy.

Why God Made Little Girls

*God made the world with its towering trees Majestic mountains and restless seas
Then paused and said, "It needs one more thing ...
Someone to laugh and dance and sing
To walk in the woods and gather flowers
To commune with nature in quiet hours."
So God made little girls
With laughing eyes and bouncing curls
With joyful hearts and infectious smiles Enchanting ways and feminine wiles,
And when He'd completed the task He'd begun
He was pleased and proud of the job
He'd done,
For the world, when seen through a little girl's eyes
Greatly resembles Paradise*
