We, the class of 1981, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Marcia Bromley in appreciation for all her hard work, patience, and perserverance throughout the years. We deeply appreciate her willingness to give up her time and help us whenever we needed it. We would just like to say —

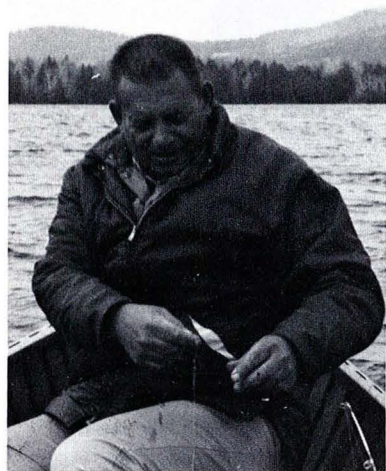

“Thank you, Mrs. Bromley, for everything and we’ll never forget you.”

We would also like to dedicate this yearbook to our class advisor and friend, Mrs. O'Connor. Her guidance and assistance through the years has been a big asset in helping us to achieve some of our goals. She has always been there when we needed a push, an extra hand, or just someone to talk to. We could never have made it without her, and we will always remember her wherever we are.

With Love,
The Seniors

Mr. Rudolph Volkmann

IN MEMORY OF ...

Do not stand at my grave
and weep:
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds
that blow.
I am the diamonds glint
on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripening grain.
I am the gentle autumn's
rain.
When you awaken in the mornings hush,
I am the swift uplifting
rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave
and cry:
I am not there. I did not die.

Age of Perfection

"One" I thought a lovely age.
"Two" seemed better still.
"Three!" Ah, that's life's golden stage,
Rich with many a thrill!
Then, as many a gray-haired man,
Foolish to the core,
Vowed there's nothing lovelier than Little girls of four.

Now that year has come and gone,
Never more to be,
Still the charms I look upon Glorious are to see.
Still those eyes with gladness glow.
Still those charms survive!
All the radiance "four" could show
Are surely still alive.
