A YEAR TO REMEMBER

Bolton Central School
Bolton Landing, N.Y. 12814

INTRODUCTION

Every year seniors put together a yearbook reflecting their years at B.C.S. We did ours from a special angle, and it was for us a "Matter of Pride" to look back and capture Bolton memories. We hope this "One Last Look" at our "Year to Remember" will bring you that "Special Spirit" too. These truly are our best of times at Bolton Central School.

DEDICATED TO MOM AND DAD

You have known us
in good and
bad times
You have seen us
when we were happy
and when we were sad
You have listened to us
when what we said was intelligent
and when we talked nonsense
You have been with us
when we had fun
and when we were miserable
You have watched us
laugh
and cry
You have understood us
when we knew what we were doing
and when we made mistakes
Thank you for
believing in us
for supporting us
and for always being ready
to share thoughts together
You are a perfect friend

— Susan Polis Schutz

TAKE A LOOK —

! BEHIND THE SCENES AT B.C.S.

In a flash

... Our years together have brought us through many special moments. Through the good and the bad times, the winning and the losing, we've only grown closer in friendship. We've learned when to give and when to let go, and we've learned to work hard.

It's more than just student to teacher, and classmate to classmate, more than just community to school. It's about family, friendship and loyalty and working together so that we can all grow to become better people.

Good-bye

by nightranger

As the sun hides its head for another nights rest and wind sings his same old song, and you on the edge never close never far always near when I needed a friend.

Yet its hard living life on this merry-go-round, always up, always down spinning round and round.

And all of this could be a dream so it seems, I was never much good at Good-bye.

There once was a time never far from my mind, on the beach, on the 4th of July. I remember the sand, how you held out your hand
and we touched for what seemed a lifetime.
Now its hard, leaving all this behind me now,
like a school boy lost never found until now.

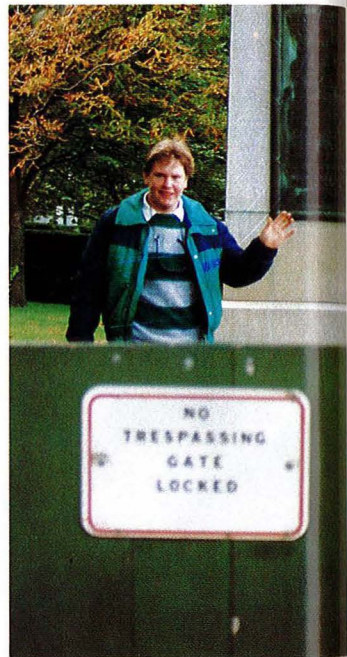

Yet its hard living life on this merry-go-round always up, always down turning round and round and all this could be just a dream so it seems I was never much good at Good-bye!
Good-bye!

Thanks for being my best friend. To Bonnie and Erick — A fleet of babies, and a chain of deli's throughout the United States. To Steve — New teeth, and enough firepower packed into the new Dodge to over run Sagamore Island and start a dictatorship. To my "little sister" Becky — A car that will do 135 mph in 2nd gear and a grey 1985 Volkswagon Jetta. To Bill — A car that will beat Becky, so you can rub it in her face. To Norton — To be called "Hey Norton." To Andy — Another Camaro, another Chevrolet, and a riproting bombfire underneath your mustang. To Karl — A Bolivian Plantation, a condominium in Geneva, Switzerland, a telephone modem hooked in with a F.A.C.—Norad base, to stage your own nuclear assault against the Libyans, to be president of the Oliver North an Club, and an armor plated Ferrari Testarosa. To Zack — A race between your Camaro and my sister's Capri, HA, what a joke. To Heather M. — A metallic blue 1988 Camaro. Iroc Z. To Becky P. — More arguments, and a cure for your attitude. To Chris O. C. — Absolute craziness, and "BUSH" for president. To Burns — A long, strange trip to nowhere and "peace". To Mr. Donahue and Mr. Seeley — A match to settle your dispute over "manager of the year." To the teachers of B.C.S. — the return of Jody Burke and Dale Richardson to school. To Amy — The Char Steer, and my love and friendship forever. To Mr. Marks — Platform shoes! And to the class of '89! The best of luck.

To Sue — a permanent boyfriend, a new car, bigger closet, more fingers, your own McDonalds, long finger nails, a big blue truck with brooms. To Tami — the ability to think and be quiet, non tyde clothes. To Heather — balonga and cheese sandwich, unsalted trail mix, push push your skies, a fatter body, the ability to come to school more than twice a week. To Chris — a pen, paper, homework, a neat locker, deep fried bananas. To Wendy — a car finder, a trip to Lake George, Wendleheimer. To Mike — side burns, the ability to be nice to me, another (like mine), to have someone touch you and not say don't touch me. To Karl — always stay funny, the ability to get to school on time. To Mr. Seeley — always keep your great laugh, thanks for trying the food we made, a better golf game, a good diet, and the ability to win a football pool. Lov ya Jimmy J! To Mr. Donahue — another bus ride with Bill, a real prom, a senior class trip, the ability to match, orange and black prom. To Mr. Girard — another great driving class like ours, no more bushes on my paper, and now no more complaints from me, good luck with Jennifer. To Mr. Huck — two more students to criticize your work, a bigger lunch tray. To Jeremie — the ability to get along with me, to make it through high school, stick with it you will always come out on top! To Dale — Mom 2: a great kid like me, real dogs, more kids, another Eddie Murphy move. To Dad — a perfect golf game, a helicopter and Lear jet, the ability to admit to being wrong, matching clothes. To Mom — more fingers, an even temper, a cook, microwave food, the ability to deal with Jen, patience, a healthy kid who will stay out of the hospital. Mom and Dad — thank you for everything, for always being there, I love you guys so much, I hope to always make you proud of me, and don't worry I will make it through college!

Senior Wills

Senior Class Prophecy

ON APRIL 1, 2010

After our third attempt of trying to organize our class reunion, Mr. Donahue personally located every member of the class of 89 for our twentieth reunion.

Buddy purchased a 3.5 million dollar beach house in Barbados for the occasion because we didn't want to inconvenience Sue, who would have to travel all the way back to Bolton. The butler, Mr. Welton, greets Sarah, the world famous orator with her husband, who arrived promptly as usual.

Traffic Zach arrives in his Amphibious Green Camaro, flaunting his latest design in tie-dye tuxedos. Then, after shooting his tenth appearance on the cover of Guns and Ammo, Steven arrives in full camouflage and face paint. He is discussing with Zach the ramification of nuclear proliferations. Dave's in a tow truck labeled "Dave's Twenty Hour Towing" with the motto "Whatever You Mangle, We Untangle." He inherited Maranville's Garage which he renamed "Gnarley Norton's Crash-N-Smash."

The Bolton Butcher Butch Lagoy arrives, after twenty-three successful title defenses. He is retired and is doing Miller Lite commercials with John Madden.

Jeff arrives in an army jeep accompanied by two MP's. Jeff is now doing K.P. work for the rest of his army career for running over a commanding officer with a bulldozer. Heather is a political activist and is scheduled to do an appearance on 60 Minutes, spotlighting the rights of the seventeen year old. Heather M. is sitting in a corner quietly giggling with her old flame Zack, discussing her new job as hostess of a remake of a popular game show "Try Not To Make Me Laugh." Jessie is down in the exercise room performing on the balance beam and signing autographs next to her picture on the front of a Wheaties Box. Becky is Jessie's Personal Business manager and accountant and had to spend most of the time going over marketing strategies for Jessie's new video. Tami, who lives in the beach house next door to Buddy, is late because she couldn't find her way. She is currently planning to join the peace corps, hoping to travel to some underdeveloped nation to teach natives how to play the piano.

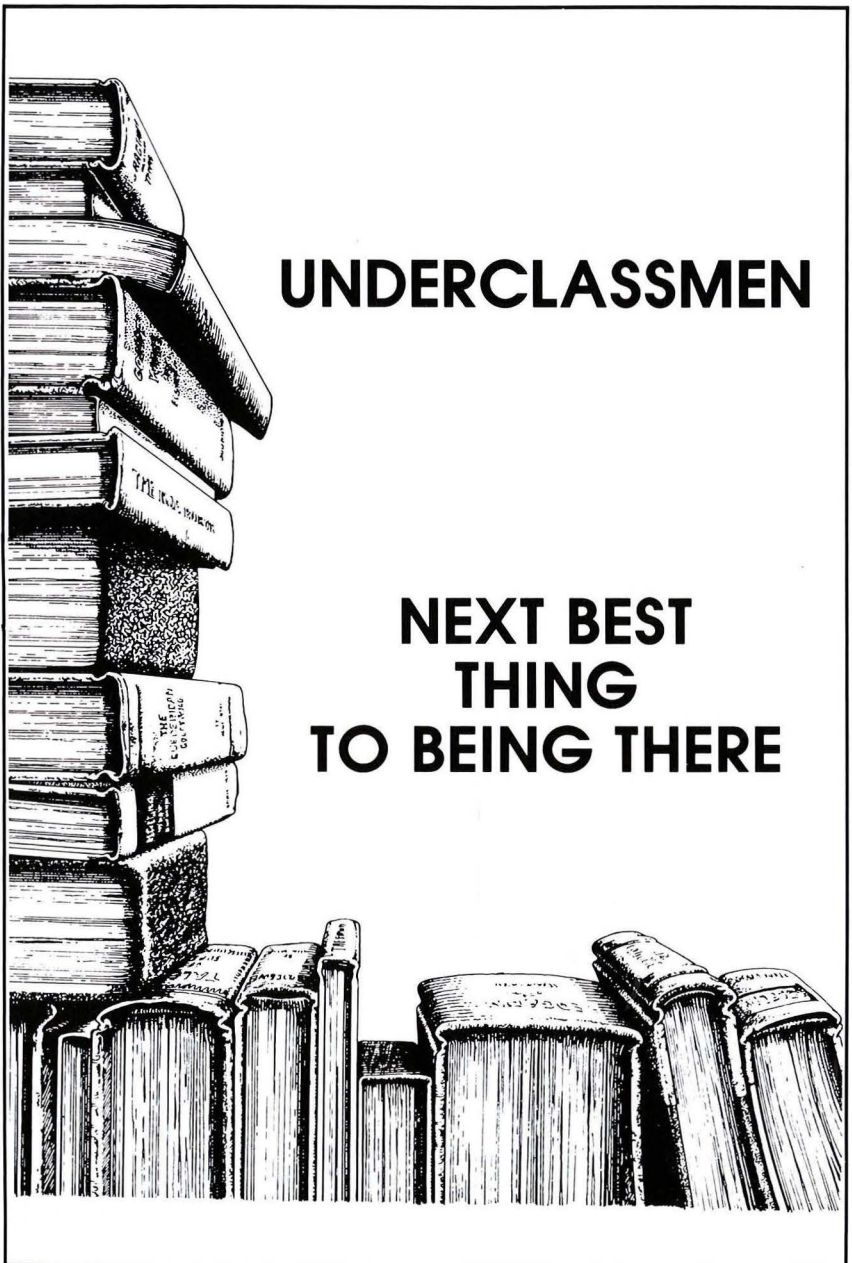

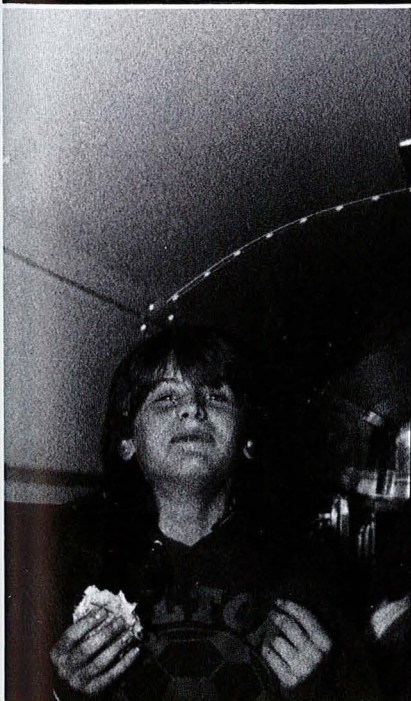

The world renowned physicist Wendy discusses with a group, "How to improve your employment status at Fay's." Michelle arrives and informs us that Amy has been involved in a serious speed reading accident when she hit a book mark. The book was Amy's latest work "I Am; Therefore, I Exist." But we are happy to hear she survived. As a get well present her father bought her the Library of Congress. Michelle, after sailing around the world returns to Bolton Central School to take over Mr. Girards history class. Her specialty area is "The study of free days." Michelle anxious to see her inseparable pal Amy, turns and runs to her side and tells her of her free days.

Then over the horizon, a giant pirate flag comes into view. It is flying on top of a one hundred and fifty foot mast which belongs to an immense yacht owned by the world's biggest con artists Mike and Karl. As they take off from their ship in a helicopter in an attempt to sky dive into the party, they throw off their parachutes and run to the beach. Sue, last to arrive as usual, is wearing a hard hat and holding a pick. She is just returning from one of her many world renowned diamond mines.

There is a terrifying shriek over by the pool! We all look to see what the problem is and what do we see, but eight thugs dressed in black carrying machetes. They have been hired by Chris to test the abilities of the new Buddy Lee. But of course Buddy being the invincible one, knocks them all down with one kick. Then the butler rings the dinner bell, and the whole class scurries to get into their groups.

The only classmate not to attend was Andre because he is in intensive care at Boston General due to a malfunction in a bullet proof vest that he was testing for NYPD. All in all, the reunion was an extremely memorable event.

Today is the first day of the rest of your life.
Congratulations!
We are so proud of you!

We Love You very much!
Mom, Dad, Beth

Michelle,

We finally made it! Thank you for always being there! — But don't worry, just because we graduated does not mean you'll get rid of me. Ha, Ha! You're stuck with me!
I love you!

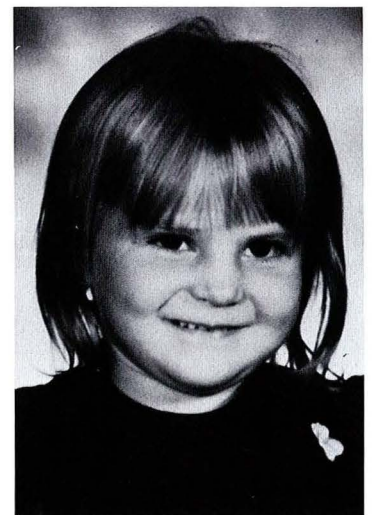

— Amy
