TRY 2 BE DIFFERENT!

SPECIAL THANKS

Dr. Richard C. Grimm retired in August 1997. During his term as our Superintendent, curriculum was developed and expanded, our standards were raised! We miss you Dr. Grimm.

Mrs. Patsy Russell retired in January 1998. During her many years of service as the Superintendent's Secretary, school business was organized, students, teachers and staff were nurtured. We miss you Patsy!

Ms. Hoffer

The Class of 1998 would like to give a special thanks to Ms. Hoffer and Mrs. DeHoney, without their help this book would not have been possible. Thanks for the support and for believing in us.

To my class-

We are all different people,
And into the world we are thrown,
We will try to do our best,
Some of our goals will be known.
We will follow the open road into life,
Stopping for gas on the way,
We all urge to go,
But we all hope to stay,
Although this is our last year,
The past has been great,
Now together we stand,
We are the class of '98

PHILLY★PHILLY★PHILLY★PHILLY★PHILLY★PHILLY★PHILLY★PHILLY★

Our annual, and very memorable trip was to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In addition to the Historical Walking Tour, a visit to the Edgar Allen Poe House and the Franklin Mint, we saw the play "The Goodbye Girl"! This was one of Bolton's best trips ever!

... Do you recognize these famous sights?

BCS VISITS THE BRITISH ISLES

by Andy Korts

An incredibly wonderful experience! This is the overall feeling of the fifteen Bolton Central School people who journeyed to England and Scotland during the February School Break. The group included: Cory Cleavland, Gillian Keleher Steven Babé, Matt Hoffer, Nancy Neumann, Rita Roberts, Vicky Roberts and Anthony Muscatello. Chaperones were Mr. Donahue and Ms. Hoffer. Additional staff members present were Ms. MacLean and Mr. Korts. Parents, Derry and Anna Roberts and Regina Muscatello also participated in the trip. The first two days in London included sight-seeing (Westminster Abbey, Houses of Parliament, The Tower, St. Paul's, Buckingham Palace, etc.), a top notch performance of Oliver and a little free time to visit the "shops."

On to Stratford-Upon-Avon to commune with Shakespeare and stay in a 15th Century Inn. A bus then carried us to Warwick Castle and on to York for two exciting days studying Viking culture and visiting the National Railway Museum. A full day's journey took us to Durham. Hadrian's Wall and on to Scotland (Edinburgh) where once again, the days were filled with exciting sights of Edinburgh Castle, Holyrood Palace, The Royal Mile, Pipers and the general thrill of being in Scotland. The weather during the entire trip was unbelievable, no rain and temperatures in the 60's (way above normal).

Local food (beef, lamb, fish, sausage rolls, haggis and Scotch eggs) was sampled and enjoyed by all. Without a doubt, the students have benefitted educationally from this multicultural experience. I am continually hearing stories about what they saw, heard, and above all, learned.

New York and Washington friends!

BOLTON CAPTURES 11TH CONSECUTIVE TITLE

The 1997, Bolton Eagles Varsity Baseball team put together this school's 11th consecutive championship season. During that stretch, Coach Jim Donahue's Eagles have won titles in the now defunct Marcy Conference, Independent League, and presently the Mountain and Valley Athletic Conference.

With weather wreaking havoc on the spring schedule, the team managed to win their first 11 league games and then proceeded to defeat opponents in the first two rounds of sectional competition before finally falling to Lake Placid in the finals, one of only two blemishes on this year's record. The only other loss, to Minerva, ended a string of consecutive league victories for Coach Donahue that dates back to 1989, and totals more than 80, a truly amazing accomplishment.

Throughout the season, stellar pitching performances by a staff consisting of Lance Truax, the league's Most Valuable Player, and the brother Tandem Brian (1st team All-Star) and Greg (2nd Team All-Star) Perry, kept opposition hitters off balance with an array of fastballs, curveballs, changeups and the occasional knuckleball. Offensively, the team was lead by catcher Sam Caldwell (1st Team All-Star), who lead the team in most hitting categories and the versatile Jeremy Bromley (2nd Team All-Star), who was very adept with the bat while playing a variety of positions. Defensively, shortstop Chris Ball (Honorable Mention All-Star) anchored a rock solid infield, with considerable glove contributions from Matt Wells, Matt Kostyl, and Worthy Russell. Dan Perry played all outfield positions with capable bench assistance from Tom Quigan, Tony Huck, Jason Kish, Ian Pratt, and Josh Lylyk. Scott French, injured for the entire season, was a major inspiration with his constant cheering and positive attitude.

Along the way, Coach Donahue garnered accolades as the Coach of the Year, his third consecutive award, a period over which his teams have recorded an impressive 45-4 win-loss mark.

Coach Donahue begins his ceremonial "pacing" of the sidelines.

Let the celebration begin!!

Earl Weaver, Billy Martin, Casey Stengel? I don't think so!

The ever intense bench takes time out for the paparazzi.

A frequent site — Coach Donahue and Sam survey the defensive situation before calling the play.

Lance presents this scary sight to opposing pitchers.

Kenny Lofton — NO — only Matt Wells about to score again!

Tucker & Dan knowing each other!! Keeping your house warm, James from Albany, the ride down to Jewel, Jeff R. calling you, then coming over! Dana & Stanley, Amy, we haven't known each other for very long, but we've gone through a lot & I'm glad that I had someone to talk to who really & truly could understand. Remember that "LOVE IS A GRAVE MENTAL DISEASE!!!" keep in touch when you get out of college. I love you & I'll always be there for you. Sam: to someone who has never been willed to! Dave Matthews Band. I hope you're happy now. Good luck in school. I'll never forget you! Boze & Grace: Thank you for everything that you guys have done for me over the summer. Good luck. I hope to be reading a wedding announcement. I better be there to see you get married and that you will have a life full of happiness. Beth: Thank you for making my brother very happy. I can't wait until you're my sister-in-law. Justin: We haven't always been close but I'm glad we are now. I have a lot of good memories with you, especially our trip to watch Queensbury come so close to winning the State Championship. No matter what, I'll always be a Spartan! I hope that you & Beth will be happy. I love you very much! Sean: You've always been unique, & I admire you for that. You have come such a long way from that little boy. The memories that we have shared will always stay close. Someday you will find true love I wish you happiness throughout your whole life, & I hope that all of your dreams come true! Good luck. I love you dearly. Mom: Where do I begin? Thank you for standing by me through all of my hard years. I'm glad that we came out of it stronger people & we are now closer than we've been in many years. I want you to know that you are the best mother anyone could ever have. I may not always show you how much you mean to me, but always remember that I love you. I haven't always been the greatest daughter in the world, & I'm sorry. I'll always be thankful for that one night that you came & rescued me I love you very much & I'm glad that you're my mother. Thank you for everything that you have done for me, Justin & Sean. and thanks for sticking by me mom, thank you for helping me get through school! I may not have been the easiest child to get up in the morning, but I finally made it. I love you very much!

Thanks for being there for me and understanding. I will always remember you. Until the next time we party ... stay out of trouble. Jason: The first time I hung out with you was with Danielle ... Hanging out in the Village-you running after a car full of girls. Prom '97. Our talks about people, and how much girls confuse you. Going to your house-you were a CHUBBY little thing when you were younger!! Yeah! Yeah! I know-so was I. Amie coming over to your house looking for food. You yelling at me, Danielle, and Amie — Their expensive plates — You are a funny guy. Just looking at you makes me laugh — Thanks! you're an awesome guy ... the girl that finds you will be very lucky! TO THE SENIOR GUYS: to all our FUN times — they were limited. Basketball, Chris' parties, O'Tooles, Football, Oh yeah, and get rid of your egos! Jeremy: Meeting you for the first time, seeing you at Action Park. Your place in Warrensburg. You meeting Danielle and trying to get used to her attitude. Meeting Amie for the first time, along with Nicole. Moving to Bolton. Bringing friends over just to sit on your couch and laugh. THE pillow that Danielle always complained about. Trying to hook friends up, your car, your hair, your job ... so when were you supposed to go? WWF Wrestling in your house with me & Amie, Independence Day, Gremlins, Earnest Scared Stupid, Dazed & Confused. Thanks for coming to my basketball games and being there for me. These past couple of months have meant more to me than you'll ever know. I cherish the times we spend together, and I will always hold your love in my Heart. I love you! MOM & DAD: You've opened up a new world for me, I never knew it was possible. You've been there for me always. Thanks for always being by my side. Thank you for giving me your ever-lasting love. Without your acceptance and loving support, I wouldn't be where I am today. I love you. GRAM/GRAMP: Thanks for being there for me and encouraging me to follow my dreams. You've made me realize that I have the power to determine my future. I'll never find home cooked meals better than yours. Thanks for everything — I love you! GRANDMA: For all you've given me, I thank you. Even though we live miles apart, my love for you never weakens. The many experiences we've had, I will never forget. There will always be a place in my Heart for you. I love you!

Remember when . . .

- Danielle wasn't complaining
- The Seniors weren't at O'Toole's on a Monday night
- Amie, Maggie, Matt and Lance bought Meghan a "44DD" for her 16th birthday
- We initiated Chad L. on the Philadelphia trip
- Maggie scored her 500th point in Basketball
- Jason slid down the hill in his first Mustang due to weather conditions and five custodians pushed him back up
- Bart without his Superman sweatshirt
- Lance busted the move at the prom
- Chad C. wasn't "pulled over" for one thing or another
- Amie, Cassy and Sarah sang to Matt and Lance at Capri
- Sarah and Amie were sent into the hall due to "behavior" in Social Studies
- Sarah wasn't on detention for "inappropriate language!"
- Brigit had a lip ring
- Jason had a traffic cone in his locker . . . and he still does!
- Greg stayed after school everyday because he loved school so much (so do we!)
- You could say "Where's Lance?", instead of "Where's Lance and Matt?"
- Bart spoke in "everyday English"
- Betty got her new "Hot Wheels"
- We called Chris Ball, "Chris" instead of Chris Ball!
- Mr. Wasser wasn't teasing Bart and Jason.
- Maggie had a fro
- Cassy finally found Jeremy Moon
- Chad C. wasn't driving a Ford!
- Amie raced down the Northway in pursuit of "wicked men"!
- Chris Ball and his parties.

. . . and most of all remember . . . Chicken Grease!!!

The Senior Class of 1998 is holding their 25th reunion, it is the year 2023. The class is gathered at Chad Ludwick's personally designed mansion in California. Betty Huck is the first to arrive, along with her cloned 22 children and computer wiz husband! Betty works at MIT making bombs. Matt Kostayl pulls next to Betty in his brand new Porsche. He received the Porsche from Tony Huck who became a world renowned hunter and who used deer skins to upholster the interior of the car. There are many animal rights activists protesting Tony's activities, including his wife Meghan Farleigh who in her spare time is a country singer and flute player. Lance Traux became a bat boy for the NY Yankees and is currently receiving minimum wage. Chris Ball is a major league baseball star. Maggie and Bart Tekmitchov married one year after graduating from Cornell University, realizing they were destined to be together! They now have a band where Maggie sings lead and Bart plays bass. Chad Cleveland approached Mr. Ludwick's mansion in his Ford truck. He just returned from mud bogging and was excited about his new monster tires. All of a sudden sirens were heard, it was Greg Perry in his Bolton Landing fire truck. Jason Kish and Brigit Culligan came, still arguing about chemical castration. Amie O'Rourke (who teaches art at BCS) showed up on her much loved galloping horse named Noodle. Danielle Waller travels around the world because her artwork is so popular! She came in a plane for a brief moment only as she was headed to Australia. Cassy Seymour has her own line of clothing. She arrived in a limo escorted by hot muscular men because she doesn't want to end up like Versace. Sarah Ramos is the only one who didn't show up because she is in Hawaii absorbing the sun and refuses to come back!!!

EVERYDAY LIFE•EVERYDAY LIFE•EVERYDAY

Thank you Dr. Grimm!

BCS Faculty and Staff said good-bye to Dr. Grimm at a farewell party in his honor. Thanks and appreciation were the sentiments of the evening for his years of service, 1991-1997, to our school and community.

Dancing girls, comedy acts, magic tricks, and testimonials were just some of the highlights of the evening of fun!

Senior pages . . .

As we have watched and waited anxiously, our moment awaits. Graduation Day is getting close and we will soon be on our own. We all have many different goals and desires in life. All of us are successful in our own way and this is what has made our class unique and different. Our day is almost there and we will all miss someone. Our class as a whole had had it's disagreements but we have always seemed to work past them and that is what makes us so close, as if we are family. Everyone should be themselves and "Try 2 Be Different."

GONE AWAY
 (by Offspring)
 MAYBE IN ANOTHER LIFE
 I COULD FIND YOU THERE,
 PULLED AWAY BEFORE YOUR TIME.
 I CAN'T DEAL, IT'S SO UNFAIR.
 . . .AND IT FEELS, AND IT FEELS LIKE
 HEAVENS' SO FAR AWAY.
 . . . AND IT FEELS, YEAH IT FEELS LIKE
 THE WORLD HAS GROWN COLD.
 . . . NOW THAT YOU'VE GONE AWAY
 LEAVING FLOWERS ON YOUR GRAVE,
 SHOW THAT I STILL CARE BUT BLACK ROSES AND HAIL MARY'S
 CAN'T BRING BACK WHAT'S TAKEN FROM ME. I REACH TO THE SKY
 AND CALL OUT YOUR NAME, AND IF I COULD TRADE I WOULD.
 . . . AND IT FEELS, AND IT FEELS LIKE HEAVEN'S SO FAR AWAY.
 . . . AND IT STINGS, YEAH IT STINGS. NOW THE WORLD IS COLD,
 . . . NOW THAT YOU'VE GONE AWAY, GONE AWAY, GONE AWAY, YEAH, YEAH,
 YEAH, YEAH, YEAH, OH YEAH. I REACH TO THE SKY AND CALL OUT
 YOUR NAME.
 OH PLEASE, LET ME TRADE. I WOULD.
 . . . AND IT FEELS AND IT FEELS LIKE HEAVENS' SO FAR AWAY, AND IT
 FEELS, AND IT FEELS, LIKE THE WORLD HAS GROWN COLD NOW THAT YOU'VE GONE AWAY . . .

Dearest Cassandra,

The splendor to behold watching a flower bloom, that doesn't compare to watching you. There is a magic in a hug, or in a smile, that is only understood between dads and daughters. Remember always the challenges we face, and the triumphs we shared. Forever my princess, forever my friend, always my little girl.

*Stronger than time,
Dad*

Meghan,

From the first day we looked into your beautiful face our lives were changed forever. You have brought us so much joy as we have watched you grow from our little "Meggie-Jen-Jen" into the lovely young woman that you are. As you move forward in life, remember to look down the road less traveled, up to your heavenly Father and always be yourself.

Congratulations to you and the Class of 1998!

Grandpa's Song
To Maggie

(Magoober)

"This special time, this special place
Is brightened by your special face.

The Gang will soon sing auld lang syne and Touch your sentimental heart and mine.

And as we go our separate way,
We'll keep the memory of this day.

I wish I might, I wish I may
Have this wish I wish for you today:

May you always walk in sunshine,
Slumber warm when night winds blow.

May you always live with laughter,
For a smile becomes you so.

May good fortune find your doorway,
May the bluebirds sing your song.

May no trouble travel your way,
May no worry stay too long.

May your heartaches be forgotten,
May no tears be spilled.

May old acquaintance be remembered,
And your cup of kindness filled.

And may you always be a dreamer,
May your fondest dreams come true.

May you always guide with love
All those who depend on you"

Gram and Gramps and Uncle Greg
With you always
You were our sunshine. We are in yours
