BOLTONIAN 2007

BCS LIBRARY

Dear Ms. O'Connor,

The years of patience and dedication that you have shown this school have been amazing. Not only were you there to teach us math in preparation for high school, but you were always around to lend a smile and a good word. Thank you for just being a part of this school, and we all wish you the best in everything you do.

The students, faculty, and staff of B.C.S.

We would also like to thank Mr. Ted Caldwell for this year's cover photograph.

FINAL FAREWELL

We, the seniors of 2007, would like to express our gratitude to the faculty and underclassmen of B.C.S. Good luck to next year's class of 2008, we will miss you...

We would also like to thank our class advisor Mr. Leone for everything he has done for our class over the last few years, including putting up with all the annoyances and stress we created.

Congratulations and best of luck in all your future endeavors!

The Bolton Central School Teacher's Association

Lauren-
Over the last few years we have grown so close and shared so many memories I will never forget. I don't know what I am going to do without you next year. Just know that I will always be here for you. Good luck in whatever you choose to do.

"Ladies and gentlemen of the class of '07...Wear sunscreen. If I could offer you only one tip for the future, sunscreen would be it...
 Enjoy the power and beauty of your youth. Oh, never mind. You will not understand the power and beauty of your youth until they've faded. But trust me, in 20 years, you'll look back at photos of yourself and recall in a way you can't grasp now how much possibility lay before you and how fabulous you really looked. You are not as fat as you imagine.
 Sing... Floss... Stretch... Dance...
 Even if you have nowhere to do it but your living room. Don't feel guilty if you don't know what you want to do with your life. The most interesting people I know didn't know at 22 what they wanted to do with their lives. Some of the most interesting 40-year-olds I know still don't. Maybe you'll marry, maybe you won't. Maybe you'll have children, maybe you won't. Maybe you'll divorce at 40, maybe you'll dance the funky chicken on your 75th wedding anniversary. Whatever you do, don't congratulate yourself too much, or berate yourself either. Your choices are half chance. So are everybody else's. Do not read beauty magazines. They will only make you feel ugly. Don't mess too much with your hair or by the time you're 40 it will look 85. But trust me on the sunscreen"

Dear Kristine,

Your family is very proud of the wonderful young woman you have become. We look back on your growing years fondly, wishing we could recapture some of the fun and joy of watching you grow from a baby to a little girl to a pre-teen to a young adult.

You are now an adult, and a beautiful, smart and funny woman with a fantastic sense of humor and style. We are so proud of you, of who you turned out to be, and we happily anticipate what you plan for your life going forward.

Mom, Dad and Justine wish you the best of everything in your life. You know who you are, and what you want to become. It's all there for you... laid out before you like a blanket of pure white snow, ready for your heart, mind and body to guide you through life.

We will always be here for you, Kristine, and we will always love you with all our hearts.

Your family,
Dad, Mom, Justine,
and your kitties- Jozy, Ty and Claire

Nathan,

We are so proud of you and can't believe how fast the time has passed. We remember the first day of kindergarten when you got off the bus and said, "I do not think school is going to work." Now, because of all your hard work and support of the Faculty and Administration at BCS you will graduate and pursue your dreams. Way to go Moose!

Love,
Mom & Dad

*Kelsey~
From the beginning you have always been there for me. I am so proud of the person you have become and will be. I'll love you always.

~Dear Kristine~

I'm so very proud of you. Recognizing and fighting our own demons is the hardest job God gives us. You're a miraculous young woman, and your road to success has just begun. No matter how many times you stumble or fall, the greatest lesson is loving yourself through it all. Don't go where the path may lead-go instead where there is no path and leave a trail!!!

Believe in yourself-I believe in you, and I love you to the moon and back!

Congratulations Stephanie,

*You know who you are, and the confidence you've gained shows in everything you do. We always thought you were a remarkable little girl, but you've grown into a dynamic person who inspires others to believe in good things. We want you to know just how proud of you we are!
....Good Luck....*

Love, Mom, Dad and Greg

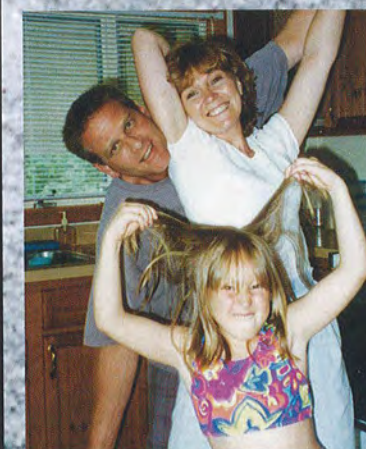

Kelsey,

It seems like just yesterday you were a little girl watching the world with wonder and excitement in your eyes, always wanting to be a part of all that was going on around you and participating with all your heart.

Now, we are watching you graduate. We couldn't be more proud of the young woman you have become. Keep your passion for the world as you enter into the next chapter of your life. Remember to welcome challenges as they will make you stronger and wiser. Hold on to your honesty and compassion because they are your most valuable possessions, and ALWAYS know that wherever you go, whatever you do, our love and support will be with you.

*We love you baby girl!
Love, Mom and Dad*

Congratulations Matthew!
 My thoughts for you...
 Wherever the future may lead be true to yourself. Let your conscience be your guide.
 Count the blessings instead of the disappointments.
 Although goals are important to have, they are not everything. It is important to savor life today rather than postpone enjoyment for a later date

I wish you a lifetime of health and most of all happiness.
 I am very proud of you!
 Love Mom

"A brother is a friend God gave you; a friend is a brother your heart chose for you." - Proverb Quote
 Congratulations Matt ~ Love Katie

Devin,

How quickly your years at BCS have flown by and how difficult it is to put our feelings into just a few paragraphs. You were an adorable little guy, always smiling and with a happy-go-lucky attitude. As you've grown, you've become a handsome young man with a calm confidence beyond your years and a great positive attitude. We are proud of your maturity and your ability to easily and politely converse with everyone you come in contact with, young and old alike.

Being a young musician has not always been an easy road for you, but you have handled it with grace and determination. Rather than hide your talent and interests in order to fit in, you have displayed them with pride, confident in knowing what God's plan for you is.

You have been blessed with an amazing gift. Our hope for you is that you will humbly use it to make yourself and your future family happy, and that you will share it with others. From performing to teaching, we know you will always put forth your best effort. When you are playing, it is all we can do to keep from bursting with pride. How lucky those future students will be, having you as their enthusiastic, talented teacher! We both love you very much and are so proud to call you our son!

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder
It is in His step which you trace,
Fear not the paths before you
For the dancer is beset by grace*

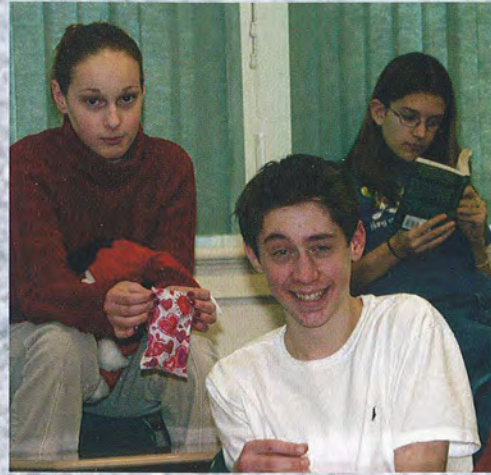

*You long to teach those who seek,
They who are at wisdoms door,
The keys are entrusted to you
Of the minds who wish to explore*

*Show them the way of your soul,
Let your music flow from your dance,
Be glad to hear them whisper,
For their whispers' our only chance*

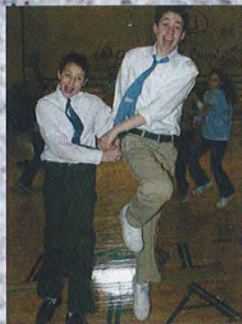

*You mother and I are so very proud,
More proud than you could ever know,
Our love is shared by many,
And shall follow where ever you go*

"I thought I saw you walking
by the side of the road.
Maybe trying to find your way home.
You're here but not here
You're gone but not gone
Just hope you know if I get lost.
Shine your light down on us
Lift us up so we can see
Shine your light when you're gone
Give us the strength to carry on
To carry on..."

Shayne~ Know that we will all carry a little bit of you throughout our lives, and that you will never be forgotten. Loving and missing you as always.

"Good friends we have,
oh, good friends we've lost
along the way.
In this great future you
can't forget your past;
so dry your tears I say."
