Final Farewell

We have enjoyed our time at BCS Land, however, it is time to leave. It is time to become individuals and fly our own separate ways. We have many memories floating throughout our history and these are most:

- Sixth Grade Field Trips and Bees
- Mrs. Ross breaking her chair
- Great Escape Day and Beach Day
- Star-Lab
- Fifth Grade Play

-"They're up there, looking for Kathleen's watch."
-Mr. Herr, Mr. Chivalier, Mrs. Ferguson, and Ms. Allison

- The Break-in Movies
- "Kailla, just go read a book"
- Driver's Ed

- "Mr. Hull, what is a Pon-ti-tac?"
- Recess with the BIG RED SLIDE
- Heads up-Seven up
- Carl's Letter

- Technology with Mr. Donohue
- Tommy's box
- "Cody, sit-down"
- Young Scholars
- Josh, Alex, and Tadd (former members)
- Spelling Bees
- "I seen the blood."

- Stella Luna and Paddington Bear
- Kendra-isms
- "GET OFF MY BRACKETS"
- "Mr. Wasser, you're so sassy"

We would like to thank all of the teachers and staff that have dealt with us since kindergarten. We know we are pains but we appreciate all of the work you have done for us. Good luck to all of the students that we are leaving behind. Enjoy your years and make them memorable.

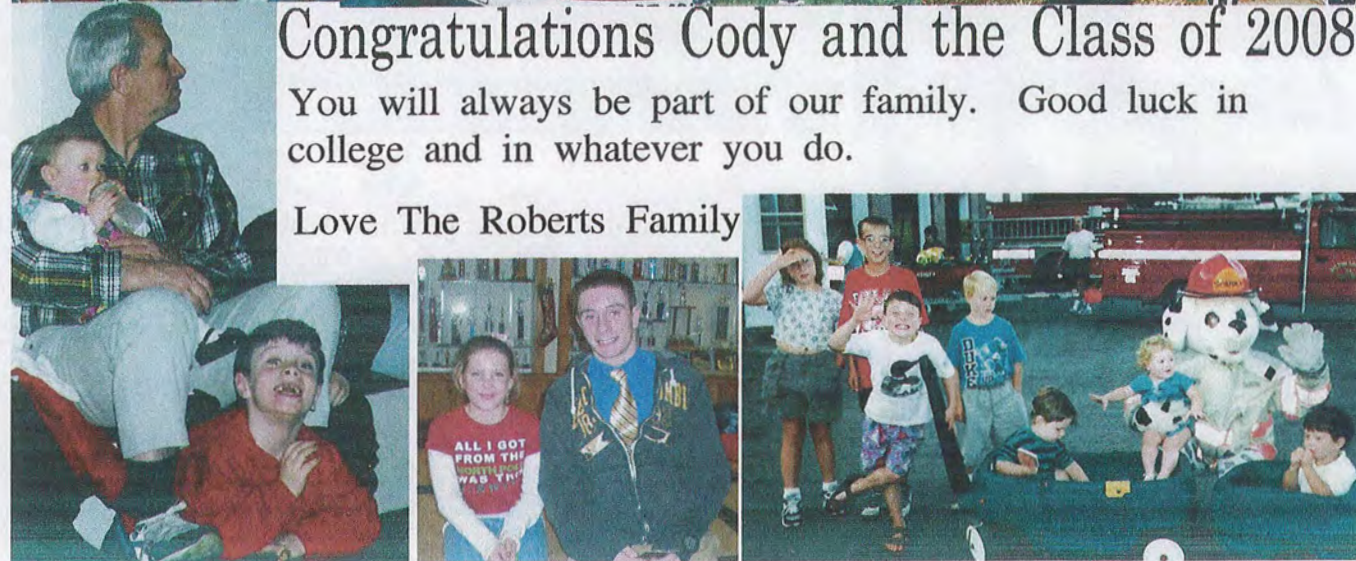

~BYE~

Congratulations Cody and the Class of 2008

It has been fun watching you through the years.
We are so proud of you both.

Always be happy
Love you
Grandma Carol and Grandpa Ron

Kaila Joy,
Ever since you were a little girl you have always known what you wanted. As a young woman that has not changed. Who would of thought our curly haired little girl would grow into this incredible woman. We are so proud of the person you have become. Always looking ahead and determined to show the world that you can stand on your own two feet.
May the future hold much happiness and success. And remember how much we love you because no matter where you go or how old you are you will always be our baby girl. Show them what you're made of Kay.

Don't settle

The Bolton Booster Club

When our family was young, our two daughters were the bookends-one at either end of their three brothers. We were sometimes wished they had not been seperated by the ten years that lay between them. Though they survived the ordeal, perhaps they secretly wished the same for, Lo and Behold, many years down the road, they were to find they were going to be mommies at about the same time.

And then there were two-

Dear sweet Carolanne made her debut first and then-one day shy of a month-along came our precious Hannah-Kate. As they grew up together, while not dressed exactly alike, their Moms kinda made sure their outfits were "similar". Thus, it seemed to us that we had twins in our family. Unfortunately, everyone who met them jumped to that same conclusion. A quick response to this assumption would be uttered by one of the girls, or sometimes in unison-"We're not twins, we're cuzzens!!!" (My! My! One could surely detect the exasperation in their voices as they grew older).

To Our Girls

We have but one regret-You grew up too soon. To keep sadness at bay, we have to believe the best is yet to come. While your babyhood, childhood, and yes, even your teen years have been such a delight, absolutely nothing can compare to the pure, unabashed pride that you family feels when we gage upon the wonderful women you have become. You will indulge us, won't you, if we about it from themountain tops that both of you are destined to achieve greatness because you are in fact, way, way above average. At least that is the considered opinion of your grandparents who love you both so very much. Stay close always.

Our precious baby girl has grown up into a beautiful young lady. Lizz, we could never be more proud of you then we are today. You have had a long road of struggles and you pulled through it all. I can not thank your Aunt Betsy and Uncle Jason enough for all that they have done. I am so proud of you for making the decision to change schools. Bolton has done a tremendous job. Your personality has even changed. I have never seen you so happy, smiling all the time, 😊 You fill our lives with so much love and happiness. Now you have a new road ahead with a life of new beginnings and you already showed us you can do it. Good luck in College and remember wherever you decide to go we will never be apart because you will always be in our heart! ❤️

Timothy James Ryder

To the "Apple of our eye" You have always made our lives complete with your smiles, all your love and the closeness you always had for us. You make us so proud and Nana would have been so proud too. You were her "little sweetheart," who played bungee jump with her off her end table while babysitting you. We are so close and we will always be here for you. As you graduate from high school and go on to college what more can we ask. Throughout the years we watched you grow and so many memories to look back on. I could say so much more but would take up a million pages to get it all in. The love you have given us throughout the years will be cherished forever. Timothy, always be who you are and what you believe in. To us you are perfect so don't change. Life will be good to you and whatever you want in your life we know you can achieve. Always be your own man and never follow the crowd as you have done so far. We love you with all our hearts and always remember how proud we are of you.

To My "Big Sis", from "Lil Sis" -
 You have always been there for me and now it's time for me to be there for you! From all of our arguments we finally made it through. You have been taking care of me since I was a baby, you took me out of my crib and fed me. We also had a lot of good times. I'm glad you're my only sister, I would never in my life replace you. I guess now that you are graduating you will be busy a lot. I will always know who is my true family, I'm glad you are. I will never forget that you are my sister, just like I know you will never forget about me.
 From All The Love I Can Get Out,
 Your One And Only Sis,

 P.S. Cody, the Lo-Zone will be anxiously waiting for you on your first college break!

Kath-

You have been and always will be my best friend. I missed you so much this year, but I am so proud of everything you have accomplished! I know you will have the time of your life in college, but don't even think about getting a new best friend...because I'm not going anywhere! I love you!

-Lauren

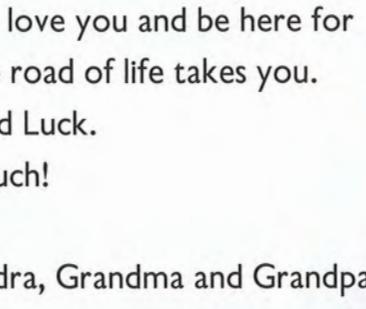

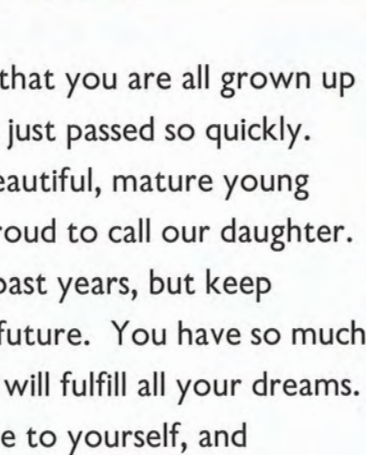

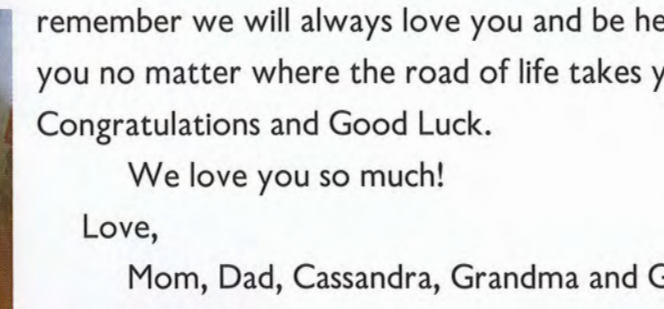

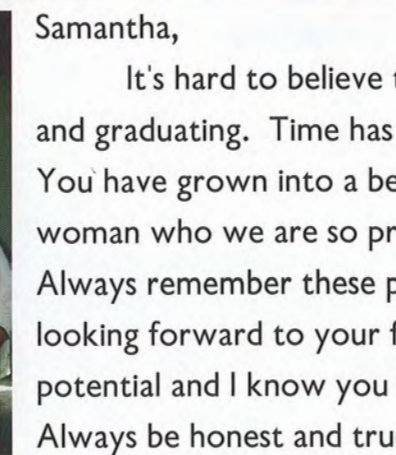

Samantha,

It's hard to believe that you are all grown up and graduating. Time has just passed so quickly. You have grown into a beautiful, mature young woman who we are so proud to call our daughter. Always remember these past years, but keep looking forward to your future. You have so much potential and I know you will fulfill all your dreams. Always be honest and true to yourself, and remember we will always love you and be here for you no matter where the road of life takes you. Congratulations and Good Luck.

We love you so much!

From others came your nature, your smile and, too, your name.
While you're different -- not a replica, much of you is quite the same.
Aunts and Uncles, Greats and Grands, Cousins, Mom and Dad
All had a part in who we see today, our lovely high school grad.
Of us, you're part, we're proud to say, and we hope you think its fine
That we have singled out the flawless rose on our family vine.

No one else can claim a brag as perfect as our own,
Because God gave us our Nannie -- from his ideal garden she was sown.

You learn, you grow, you bloom and then must go your way
But the rose that you've become stays in our hearts every day.
With pride and love and confidence, we watch and shed a tear
As we see you walk away, on your own, now, without fear.

May your path be clear and level, no matter where you roam.
But don't forget we love you, Han. We'll always want you home.

What a Wonderful Girl

I see trees of green, red roses too
 I see them bloom for me and you
 And I think to myself, what a wonderful world

I see skies of blue and clouds of white
 The bright blessed day, the dark sacred night
 And I think to myself, what a wonderful world

The colors of the rainbow, so pretty in the sky
 Are also on the faces of people going by
 I see friends shakin' hands, sayin' "How do you do?"
 They're really saying, "I love you"

I hear babies cryin', I watch them grow
 They'll learn much more than I'll ever know
 And I think to myself, what a wonderful girl
 Yes, I think to myself, what a wonderful girl

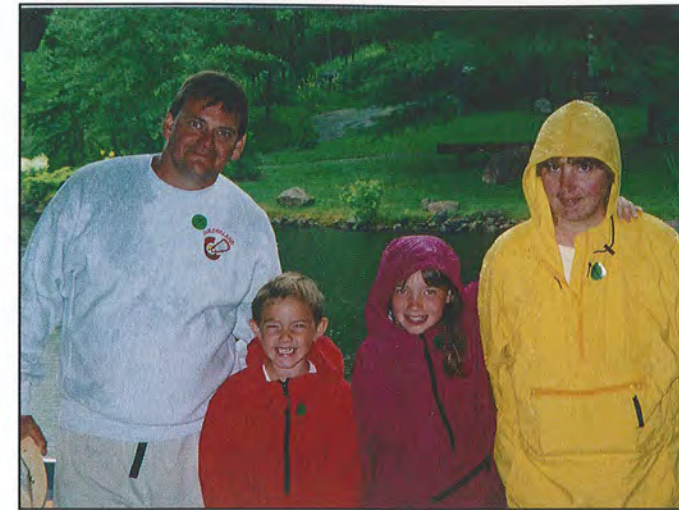

Congratulations!
