And to Thee Our Alma Mater,
Bolton Central School.

Seniors Class of 2010

"Graduation is only a concept.
In real life every day you graduate.
Graduation is a process that goes on until the last day of your life.

If you can grasp that,
you'll make a difference."

SAMANTHA

It has been our privilege to be a part of your growing and learning. Your hard work and willingness to push through the difficult times has given you strength.
Because of that and many talents, we have every confidence in you.

Remember your father has always believed you can do anything in life.
Set your goals, work hard and you will triumph.

The future will be what you make it to be.
We Love You
Congratulations!

Katie,
 You have grown from a pretty little girl to a beautiful young woman before our eyes. We are proud of the person you are on your way to becoming. Always remember how much you are loved, where you come from and who will always be there, whatever life may bring your way. We may not have been born to the same parents, but you are the sister of my heart and always will be. One last thing Katie girl, in this world, beauty holds power. Always use your power for good!

Dear Shaq,
I can't believe how fast we've grown up. I still remember you coming into my room and letting me out of my crib in the morning and now you're graduating high school. I wish we could do it all over again. Growing up with you has been interesting. We've had millions of funny moments, and a few fights, but through everything, you have been my truest and best friend. Thank you for always being here for me and being such a wonderful sister to me. Good luck in college. I know you'll do great. But don't forget about us. I'm going to miss you like crazy, so you better visit often! I love you!

Love Always,
Julie

Ash,

Dear Jacquleena,

Remember the summer before kindergarten? When, everyday, you declared "I'm NOT going"? Well, I didn't want you to go either. But here you are off to college already and I'm thankful for those memories we laugh about now and the fun we continue to have. There are so many precious moments I will always treasure; from the cherished days of you and your Sister playing dress-up, to the unforgettable Christmas morning you "fainted" when Santa brought the much desired Little Mermaid Barbie. And, of course, there'll always be our crazy kitchen dancing. Whether you're silly or serious, you have never been afraid to be yourself. It has really been a joy to raise you. And I honestly believe I've learned a few things from you too.

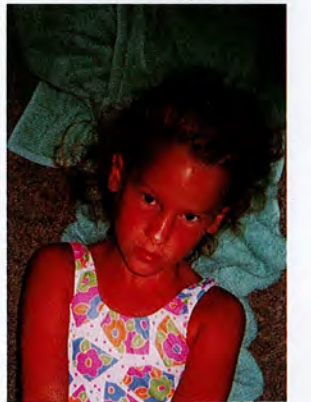

Love, Madre

Congratulations Jacqueline and Class of 2010!

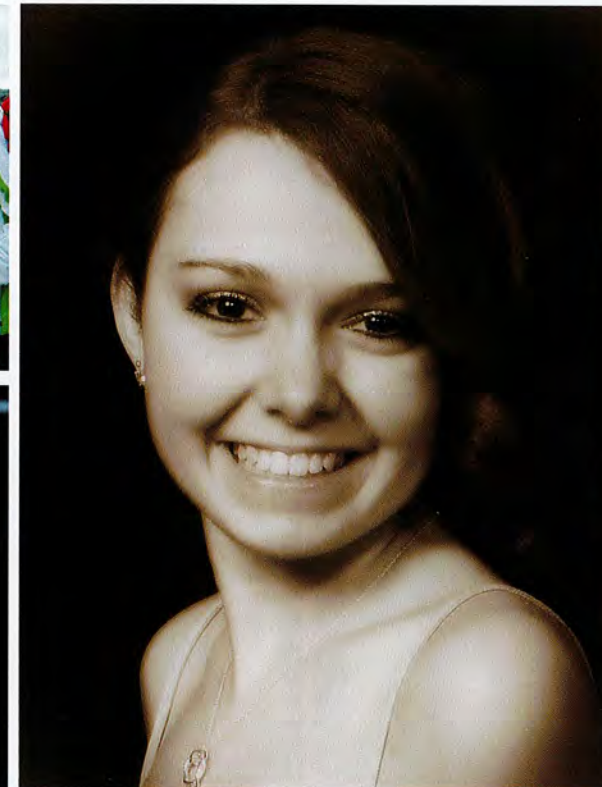

Dear Jacqueline,

It is impossible to express all of the feelings surrounding such a moment in your life without wishing we could relive all the years of watching you grow. You have filled our hearts with love from the moment you were born. Even as the years seem to have flown past, you've given our family so much happiness along the way. Your accomplishments would make any parent proud, not only in your academics, but as the person you've become and the challenges you've met so easily. You've grown into a beautifully sweet, intelligent, and ambitious young lady who values doing your best- qualities which will always serve you well as you face a bright future in a new direction. With your faith and determination, you will surely succeed in whatever you set your heart to. Live life to the fullest, keep a sense of humor about you, and learn from your mistakes. It's ok to make them.

Congratulations Jacqueline! We're proud of you and we love you very much!

Love,
Mom, Dad and Julie

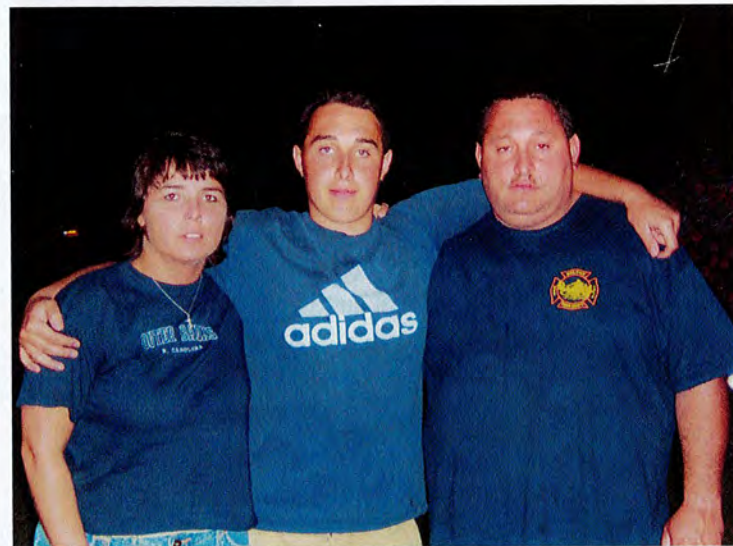

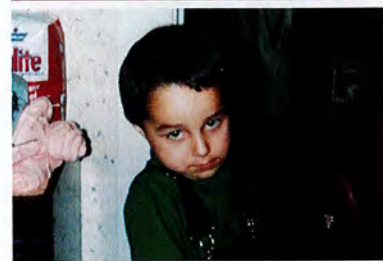

Congratulations Matthew!

Through the years, we have enjoyed watching you grow and change into the fine young man you have become. You are an inspiration to everyone who knows you. The future is yours to make into what your dreams are. We know that whatever path you choose, will lead you into a bright successful future. Thank you for all the good years and all the great memories we have shared. We love you very much and are very proud of you.

Reach for the stars. The future is yours.

Bino,
Before you came into the world, I knew you were going to be someone special. Watching you grow over the years into the woman I always dreamed you would become, has made me so proud! Now, it's time to turn the page to a new chapter in your life. Your love of life, compassion for others, and your willingness to try and learn new things will lead you to your dreams and success.

I love you Sam....Congratulations!

Mom

Laura,

Well the time has come to send our lovely precious little girl off to college. We can't believe just how quickly the time has passed. The years of helping you grow into an amazing young woman will be cherished in our hearts forever.

Your cheerful disposition and terrific sense of humor are attributes that not only bring joy to us, but reflect onto family and friends in all that you do. You have made us proud.

When looking back it was very apparent that you didn't follow the pack. That to you "peer pressure" was irrelevant and that being mean, catty, rude, cliquish, competitive and unconscionable was not "cool" at all. Instead, you chose to make a joyful path of kindness, love of life, morals, respect and inclusion. You embraced your heritage, kept focused on your goals, utilized your common sense and most importantly stayed true to yourself.

When you chose your college, you did it confidently. Being accepted in December with scholarship, but not once bragging or competing with fellow classmates for attention or class rank. You continued to keep your grades high, took the time to enjoy your final year at Bolton Central and time with your siblings. Your way of looking at the world is so refreshing. To you life is not about where your're from or being accepted. It's about where you're heading and the path you journey on.

Thank you for being such a beautiful young lady inside and out. For showing grace in difficult times, being so good natured and caring about your community both BCS and Lake George. Remember, that on your journey the best is yet to come....

Congratulations
We will love you always

Congratulations! Today is your day.
You're off to Great Places! You're off and away!
You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.
You'll get mixed up, of course, as you already know.
You'll get mixed up with many strange birds as you go.
So be sure when you step. Step with care and great tact and remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act.
You're off to Great Places!

Taylor,
Go move your Mountain!

Dear Laura,

I can hardly believe how swiftly time has flown by and you have grown up. It is as though yesterday we were playing in the backyard and in only four short years you will be a college graduate with the world at your fingertips. I can't express in words how proud I am of the wonderful person you have always been and continue to be and I cannot wait until you and I have the chance to go to the same city next fall. I have watched as you worked hard and earned a place at your dream college. No matter where life takes you and no matter how close or far apart we are, how old we get, or how difficult times may be, just know that I will always be proud to call you my little sister. Good Luck in college kiddo, I am proud of you and I love you.

John

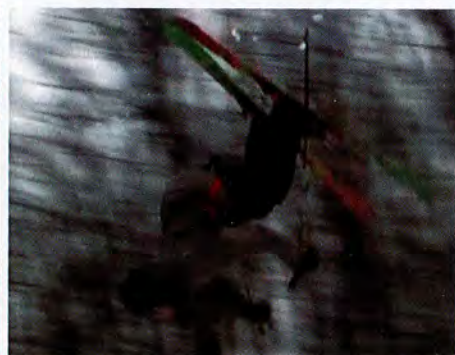

Dear Laura,

You have grown into a lovely, intelligent and talented young lady who is on the verge of accomplishing wonderful things in the future. Life is full of adventures and experiences, embrace the future and enjoy each moment on your way to your goals. I am blessed to have you for a godchild and cannot tell you how happy and grateful I am to be a part of your life again. I hope all of your days are full of love, peace and happiness.

Love always,
